He thinks that the United States was also in cars for itself, should European nations attempt commercial reprisals.

Two Officers Shot; Crazed Negro Slain

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 15.—An amateur performed this afternoon an instance of Pinkerton detective revealed a bullet in the back of Doctor Haug's head. Immediately after the autopsy the body was sent to Knoxville, Tenn., where it remained until yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haug, parents of the slain stenographer, and her younger sister, Marjorie, accompanied the body.

Detective Poldster, of the Seaboard Air Line, who followed the negro from Haug's home, where he was staying with his wife, was wounded through the stomach, and Officer Brown of Laurinburg, picking his chance, at the negro at every turn. It took five shots to bring Officer Brown's broadsword down him. Officer Brown is now seriously wounded, though several bullets took effect.

Editor to Face Trial in Illegal Mail Case

WILMINGTTON, N. C., Oct. 15.—W. O. Saunders, editor of The Down Home and Independent of Elizabeth City, who has been several times tried in State courts for libel and assault, was sentenced to jail this week in Federal Court at Elizabeth City on a charge of circulating through United States mails obscene literature.

A request for a continuance of this case and also one in which Governor Blease has been summoned as a witness, was denied by the court.

No Verdict in Case Charging Perjury

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 15.—The jury in the case of Dr. H. O. Null, county physician charged with perjury in connection with the probe of the James Smith, Jr., formerly United States Senator from New Jersey, who at the time of Dr. Wilson's nomination for Governor, was the undisputed "boss" of the Democratic party in his State, contributed in its truth.

Harvey Bought Gift

Notwithstanding the formal issue from the White House, The Georgian learned from one of its men chiefly instrumental in bringing about the nomination of Woodrow Wilson as Governor of New Jersey that Thomas Fortune Ryan did contribute $10,000 to the Wilson gubernatorial campaign.

Coleen George Harvey, according to this newspaper's informant, sought and obtained the contribution.

From the record it was ascertained that James Smith, Jr., formerly United States Senator from New Jersey, who at the time of Dr. Wilson's nomination for Governor, was the undisputed "boss" of the Democratic party in his State, contributed in its truth.

Chum Sees Tragedy

Thomas Jackson Harris, an 11-year-old schoolboy living with his parents on the McDonough road near the Federal prison, was killed by a Southern passenger train Wednesday at Swartz's crossing.

The boy left home with his two brothers to go to the Lawrence High school. As a northbound freight train approached the crossing he ran ahead of his brothers and crossed the track. Standing on the opposite side, a passenger train, which was watching the freight pass and failed to see the passenger train which struck him.

The engineer made every effort to stop the train and after the accident took the body of the boy and backed the train to Roseland Station.

The coroner investigated the accident. There being no witnesses, no inquest will be had.

PRISONERS CHAINED IN DUNGEON, CHARGES HAWTHORNE, FREED

Julian Hawthorne, the novelist, a free man Wednesday, after serving a term in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary, told a startling story of his life as a convict, in which he called the Atlanta prison a "living hell," and said Warden Moyer was "unfit."

With all the emphasis at his command, Hawthorne arraigned conditions in the penitentiary as repressive, cruel, and the equal of the most lurid descriptions in fiction.

"They are starving men in the name of economy," he said.

And Dr. W. J. Morton, of New York, his friend and fellow prisoner, nodded his head in corroboration.

"Prisoners are subjected to treatment that is nothing more than slow murder," said Dr. Morton, who is a practicing physician. "There is never enough to eat. The warden attempts to feed strong men on 9 cents a day, and when he succeeds he brings about it."

In the short time they remained in Atlanta after their release, Hawthorne and Dr. Morton talked much of conditions at the penitentiary, jumping from one detail to the other with a dramatic swiftness that made the story harrowing.

"Oh, yes, you hear of the clean cells in which the prisoners sleep," said Hawthorne. "But you never hear of the 'hole,' do you? For the slightest fault, sometimes for breaking a plate, sometimes for a little more or less, a prisoner is sent to the 'hole,' a place under the main building for solitary confinement."

"There the heat is terrific at times, and the stench is bad. There some prisoners are chained by their wrists, and held thus with arms spread-eagled for hours. And sometimes confinement in the 'hole' is for days."

Sixty Prison Far.

"But the element of hell is in the feeding," he continued, his eyes flashing. "There has never a man gone into the prison but who undergoes a steady deterioration, maybe slow, but always sure. The doctor will tell you that."

He waved at Dr. Morton, who nodded acquiescence.

"Men are put in prison to be cured for," said Dr. Morton, "not to be subjected to slow murder."

The two accepted the invitation of a Georgia reporter ride about Atlanta. But at a automobile, they forgot to city, and forgot to ask of one place after another. Hawthorne gripped the sides of his seat and vowed vengeance on the system which he described.

"The treatment is always that of beasts or criminals," he went on. "There are always the guards and the riffs, giving the public the impression that the men in prison are wild men, or desperados. And now the men are clubbed for lit nothing. There is a guard named Dean whom I have seen strike prisoners over the head, and for justifiable offense."

Escaped Harsh Treatment.

The reporter wondered if Hawthorne himself had come in for such treatment, and asked him.

"No," said the now-nothing-at-which

HAWTHORNE STORY STARTS PROBE

Mexicans Riot Against Foreigners in Capital

GEN. HUERTA DESERTED BY AIDES

President Fears Assassination
Former Supporters Turn Against Him—Situation Critical.

Editorial Cable to The Atlanta Georgian:
MONROVIA CITY, Oct. 16.—The assassination of foreigners here is becoming critical. A mob of students to-day started a riot by denouncing Americans and all other foreigners.

The mob was subdued in a brief encounter with the police, but further trouble is likely to follow.

Government supporters are deserting him and the dictator and his Cabinet are taking precautions to guard against assassination.

Washington Post.

A Spanish woman has been arrested on a charge of attempting to poison her husband, Alfonso, Minister of the Interior.

Because of the proclamation Huerta has taken over the duties of Congress four judges of the Supreme Court have resigned. It is reported that the government then sent a charge of treason.

The force of Federal troops has been for the protection of the Mexican Ambassador, who has taken up residence in the Hotel Alvarado.

President Huerta within twenty-four hours after representatives of the foreign governments had decided to report to their home governments that war was to be declared, signed a decree that all soldiers were necessary to ensure the safety of the nation.

Catholics Now Armed.

Through the efforts of the Delegates of Great Britain, France, Spain, Cuba, Guatemala, and Mexico, General Huerta ordered 1,000 soldiers to be armed with rifles and 100 in the attempt to capture Torren.

The Envoy refused to comment on Huerta's action, but immediately notified the Foreign Minister of the weakened condition of the defense.

The situation became more tense as a result of the arrest of General Huerta's son-in-law, W. M. McLean, on charges of plotting to assassinate the President.

In his confession the prisoner, who was on parole at the time of the charge, said he had been in touch with Dilling and was almost penniless. Seeing the young woman alone in the office, he entered for the purpose of robbery. When McLean refused to admit the act, he left her.

Charge; Asks Mercy

GIRL SNARES DORMITORY BURGLAR

John B. Ingram, the Blairsville moonshiner, whose car aroused the suspicion of hundreds of persons throughout Georgia a few months ago, appeared before Federal Judge Newman Wednesday, and admitted the charge of illicit distilling.

He accompanied his plea with a request for the leniency of the court, reasoning that he had abandoned moonshining for his wife's safer occupations. He brought recommendations for mercy from attorneys, county officials and ministers of Blairsville.

He will return to the court of Judge Newman January 5 for sentence. The judge is being strongly urged to suspend sentence upon him.

Convict Confesses Slaying Dallas Girl

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 16.—That a prisoner in the Indiana Reformatory had written a letter to the warden threatening to kill him if he was not freed, was admitted by Superintendent David C. Peyton of the prison.

In his confession the prisoner, who was on parole at the time of the slaying, said he had been on a protracted spree while in Dallas and was about to commit suicide. Seeing himself alone in the office, he entered for the purpose of robbery. When Miss Brown refused to unlock the safe, he killed her.

The Governor of Alabama has been the prime mover in shaping up a bill to prohibit the sale of beer to women. Taking his stand in a corner of the dormitory, he announced that he would strengthen in State politics and be their standard bearers for a long term. He was greatly impressed and delighted by the woman's frankness and her political strength, and even his credentials were not accepted in the United States Senate.

He advised that he wanted to go outside the prison walls, and he was given permission to do so.

"I visited him and saw that he was nearly ready to leave us," said Warden Hobson. "When I told him he could have his car and let me ride with him, he said he was afraid he would be the first to be arrested for driving a car."

Weaver denied the charge of burglary vigorously and declared he was not the man who had broken into No. 54 Auburn when he, when he had the door open. He went inside, he said, to catch the burglar, but was taken into custody himself, a few minutes later.

Salesman Is Held to Trial as Safe Robber

George J. Weaver, former city salesman for the Oliver Typewriter Company, was bound over to the Criminal Court under $1,000 bond on charges of breaking into a safe by Roderic Broyles Thursday afternoon.

Weaver denied the charge of burglary vigorously and declared he was not the man who had broken into No. 54 Auburn when he, when he had the door open. He went inside, he said, to catch the burglar, but was taken into custody himself, a few minutes later.

Congressman Declares Governor O'Neal and Ring Politicians Are Back of Rival's Candidacy.

Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, of Atlanta, was in Atlanta long enough Thursday to eat lunch and fire a mighty broadside at Congressman Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, amplifying on his charges that the tariff maker is a "tool of Wall street."

After robbing the rooms of two tenants at No. 18 Simpson street and shooting at R. C. Bruce, who discovered him in his home at No. 22 Simpson street, John Henry, a negro, was arrested. No. 18 is owned by Stewart Malden, of the Georgia Baptist Hospital. No. 22 Luckie street. He was trapped through the presence of mind of Miss Nellie Abshire, a nurse, after he had invaded her room and stolen watches and jewelry valued at several hundred dollars.

Miss Abshire, when she was awakened by a noise and saw the figure of the burglar in her room, screamed but did not scream. She nudged her roommate and said that she was sick. "Can I do anything for you?" her roommate asked.

"No," replied Miss Abshire. "I think I'll get up and get a drink." Burglar Gets From Room.

The burglar, holding the two young women, taking his coat off, lay down in a corner of the room, and as Miss Abshire rose from her bed, tottering as she was ill, he slipped quietly away. The two women were screaming for help, and the burglar stood on the sidewalk for a moment, and then started away toward Peachtree street.

When the officers rode up to the hospital the burglar was seen two blocks away. He was walking leisurely, with his hands in his pockets. After 15 minutes to the charges against Underwood, and he had a whole hour for his joint debate, going for aid from the charges and taking up his new material into the discussion without any chance for a rejoinder on my part, I suggested to Mr. Underwood that he should speak and end his great orations in regular fashion.

"In a fit of semi-rage he announced in his speech that he didn't intend to go into the dirty politics of Alabama, and that when I stated the sworn testimony of the Negroes before the Senate investigating the campaign contributions, which showed that Underwood was a Wall street tool, he was shocked. DETECTIVE STILL HOLDS TO SLAYING THEORY IN DOROTHY HAUG MYSTERY

THOMASVILLE, Oct. 16.—Despite the finding of a bullet in the brain of Miss Dorothy Haug, it is still too early to tell whether or not there are many people who still believe that the girl was slain. There were many people who felt that she still had to be exonerated before the mystery could be abandoned.

The Coroner's jury meets again this afternoon.

Among those who cling to the belief that Miss Haug was murdered is E. C. Peace, the Picayune detective who has been employed by the Commissioners of Thomas County to make a thorough investigation of the case.

Without allowing his intentions to become known, Peace quietly left the courtroom yesterday morning with the purpose of learning more regarding the possible visitors of Miss Haug in that city.

Proofs to Bandit.

Peace is not satisfied that the revolver from which the bullet found in the dead girl's brain was fired was held by a bandit. It is understood he will investigate further to see that she purchased a weapon while living in Thomasville.

It now appears that the evidence made by the girls' mother concerning the condition of Miss Haug's body when found in her room at the Southern Home were either misinterpreted or that the mother was too distracted by the tragedy to make her meaning plain.

Reports that the girl was found in a state of collapse when she was said to have been unconscious. It was said that the girl was lying with her right arm supporting her head, her eyes closed and her mouth open.

According to this report, it also was said that the girl had been left-handed. Her mother said before leaving home that her daughter had been left-handed.

Conflicting Statements.

The Southern Home made no statement regarding the location of the girl when found, one being that it was on the floor of her room, another that it was on Miss Haug's breast. When the body was found, it was found downward, a small stream of blood flowing from the head.

John McAlpin, who examined the body soon after it was found and suggested that the bullet came from that killed the girl was probably dead.

Chester Boys Free of $16,000 Theft Charge

CHESTER, S.C., Oct. 16.—In an effort to find the man or men responsible for the theft of $16,000 from the safe of Frank R. Miller, a Chester lawyer, was probably the most interesting preliminary in the case.

On Sept. 10, two accused warrants charging John Frazer Jr. and Ernest Higgins, Chester boys, with breaking and entering and larceny in connection with a robbery of Mr. Miller's safe of $16,000, the property of the J. G. White Construction Co.

by a man because the girl's skull was fractured, but his theory considerably softened when the bullet was found in the brain of the girl, he said yesterday. He is still inclined to believe that a shot on the head might have been the cause of death, but the bullet was fired into her head. He said, however, that the bullet from which the girl was shot had passed through the body of the girl and had come to rest in the brain.

He said that the bullet had been passed on to him by a man who told him that all vibration caused by the discharge of the gun had been taken from the bullet during the day. This might account, he thinks, for the fact that the girl's body was found in such a condition when the pieces were separated when the portion of Miss Haug's brain was examined.

No One Heard Shot.

Another theory, which may arise from the fact that the bullet was found in the brain, is that the girl was shot, but this might also be explained by the fact that the bullet was fired into the head of the girl to allow more than a single bullet.

Seek Clothes Thief Posing as a Presser.

Detectives are searching for a negro boy who, declaring that he was the son of a clothes thief, took two suits of clothes belonging to Frank P. Margolin, of the purchasing department of the McCloud and Atlantic Railroad.

It is believed that the boy, who is about five years old, was seen near the scene of the robbery and was an eyewitness of the burning of the Voluntair.

Moose Lease Home in Silvey Building.

A ten-year lease on the second and third floors of the Silvey Building, Edgewood Avenue and Decatur Street, for editorial purposes was accepted yesterday.

Conjectures that regret became so great that Miss Haug could not live in the same town with her mother, but would return to Valdosta, have positive bearing on the case, according to the Citizens' Bank, which officials are not taken seriously by the negro who is investigating the case.

Rather than become, it is argued, the object of popular ridicule, because no short a distance separates the two cities, the negro and his relatives accomplished by summer his remarkable results have followed him.

DORSEY BACK WITH NEW AFFIDAVITS; MORE DELAY IN APPEAL FIGHT LIKELY

Bellotti General interest attaches into the fight to prevent the new trial for Leo M. Frank on his return to Atlanta. Wednesday morning came to this city in complete suspense. Frank's defense team had been hearing next Saturday before Judge L. S. Ross. For a week and a half he has been working almost continually on the defense, which was the reason he went with his attorney, A. E. Stephens, to avoid.

The Bellotti was

SOUTHERN ROAD REPORTS FINE FISCAL YEAR

Despite Great Increase in Operating Expenses, System Pay 5 Per Cent Dividend

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Despite the great increase in operating expenses in Southern Railways' operating expenses, the railroad has paid a dividend of 5 per cent for the year, and had a balance of $4,295,644 in the credit of surplus account for the year.

The report made by the railroad's chief financial officer, W. C. Eaton, in the annual report showed total earnings of $17,874,535, according to the annual report issued today.

The report makes mention of the adoption of a new system of depreciation methods in Atlanta, involving some

JEALOUSY MADE MOTIVE BY U. S. IN EATON CASE

Admiral's Widow Under Terrific Verbal Lash as Attorney Opens Argument Against Her

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 14.—CHARLES M. EATON, Eastern District Attorney, charged yesterday that the widow of the late Josephine Baker, Mrs. Josephine Baker, was jealous of her trial for murder, attorney Eaton said. Mrs. Baker is accused of killing her husband, Dr. Josephine Baker, before the first of June, 1917, before the trial of her son, Charles, for the murder of his father.

The government will argue to the defense that Charles' trial was delayed because of the widow's jealousy.

For more than an hour Mrs. Eaton spent in describing the widow's jealousy to the jury.

She said that the widow, who

The Present Champion Must Be Fast On His Feet In Order to Sideslip Tough Ones

GEORGIAN SPORTS COVERED by EXPERTS.

BILLY SMITH
HAD BEST BIG SERIES HUNCH

Eben Turn Called by Shrewd At-tanta Manager in Articles for The Georgian.

By O. B. Keeler.
A letter from Billy Smith may excuse a trifling absence from the "Present Champion Must Be Fast On His Feet" series among the Atlanta sportsmen. He has a partiality for unusual ways of getting his stories, and the answer to his correspondence is always prompt if kept him too long by writers. But he lets go by writers.

WELL, here goes. Billy, how do you like my hunch now? Not much. I picked the Atlanta experts and got away with it. I could as easily as Thursday for the news to come in on Sunday after you, if you know, but it wasn't such bum pick-

Billy's choice would be as shameless mannerisms, but he didn't say so. I think the picking was the best he could get. I'll give him three more. Bill Cobb and Sam Cott of Champs are a bunch. Billy's done too bad to hit Billy.

BILLY gave his reasons for selecting the Atlanta experts, and before he left for the scene of action, he said:

"I don't care if they're good, but they'll hold me up in the big game." That's what he was expected to say.

He was right enough to hold him back from the Massamores. Bill and Bandy would have been good.

And Billy alone of all the dope-ers will be turned on Marquardt to the last. As a dope-er, he was good. In the closing weeks of the 1918

Season, he was some good.

SPRINGING of Billy, here's a whole new story. Who else can make out a

a comment while he is in bed?

His tank was well enough informed about the Atlanta experts to appreciate what he was doing. Bill competed in bed, white

hands were battered by the plug

and he was some good.
